Ref No: 1/E/5/12

Her Excellency Katerina Sakellariopoulou,
President of the Hellenic Republic
Vasileos Georgiou B', n.2 Athens P.C. 100 28
GREECE.

It is with pleasure and respect that I write on behalf of The Government and all Fijians to Congratulate and wish Your Excellency, The Government and all Citizens of your Beloved Nation well and every success for the future as you Commemorate and Celebrate your country's Bicentennial Independence Day.

Your Excellency, I also believe it prudent that I take this opportunity to offer and express our sympathy and condolence for the loss of so many lives of your citizens who had succumbed to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

As Humanity continues to reel from the Pandemic's tragic social and damaging economic impacts, please be assured that our prayers and good wishes are with Your Excellency, the Leaders and Citizens of our global communities that the COVID-19 pandemic could be contained and hopefully, eradicated.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

[J.K. KONROTE]

Major-General (Ret'd)

PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF FIJI
