Algiers, 04 March 2021

Her Excellency Ekateríni SAKELLAROPOÚLOU
President of the Hellenic Republic

Excellency,

I am pleased, as Greece celebrates the 200th anniversary of its independence, to extend to You on behalf of the people and the government of Algeria, and that of my own, sincerest congratulations and my best wishes for continued good-health, and well-being to your esteemed person, as well as more progress and prosperity to your friendly country.

I take this occasion to express my satisfaction with the positive development of our cooperation and friendly relations, while convinced that we will continue working towards their strengthening, so as to serve the interests of our friendly peoples.

In reiterating my sincerest congratulations, please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
