

Francisco Rafael Sagasti Hochhausler
President of the Republic of Peru

Lima, 25th of March 2021

Your Excellency,

I have the honor to address your Excellency in order to convey the greetings of the Peruvian Government, its people and mine, on the occasion of the Anniversary of the Hellenic Republic's Independence.

In this meaningful date in which Greece commemorates 200 years of its Revolution and two centuries of existence of the Hellenic Republic, I would like to express my best wishes for the welfare and prosperity of the Greek people, and reaffirm my Government's commitment to continue strengthening the friendship bonds that define the bilateral relation between our countries.

Like the Hellenic Republic, Peru is also celebrating this year 2021 two centuries of Independence, within a challenging context that demands cooperation and international solidarity – especially among friend countries -, both key principles to secure the future development and the wellbeing of our peoples.

I avail myself of this opportunity to express to your Excellency the assurances of my highest and distinguished consideration.
